King Business Interiors Announces New Employee Kathy Hungler Hired as Showroom and Business Receptionist

Columbus, Ohio -- King Business Interiors is pleased to announce that it has hired Kathy Hungler as the showroom and business receptionist.

Hungler, of Upper Arlington, was formerly employed as a sales associate for the Tremont Goodie Shop, secretary to the director of the Franklin County 9-1-1- System and was the secretary to the chief of police of Upper Arlington.

"We're so pleased that Kathy has joined our company. Her customer relations skills will serve us well as she regularly interacts with our clients," said Darla King, president of King Business Interiors.

Hungler volunteers as a special event staff assistant for the Alzheimer's Association of Central Ohio, where she has served as a member of the special events committee.
