King Business Interiors Announces New Employees Four staff hired in the Central Ohio Area

Columbus, Ohio -- King Business Interiors is pleased to announce the addition of four staff to its company.

Bill Chaffin has been hired as an In-house Installer. He is a graduate of Westerville North High School and Hondros College. He has experience previously in the installation of office furniture environments, as well as experience in real estate sales and marketing. He resides in Gahanna and volunteers for the Columbus Aids Task Force, Meals on Wheels, and several other charitable organizations.

Christopher Schmitter has also been hired as an In-house Installer. He is a graduate of Westerville North High School and possesses a variety of experience in office systems and the construction industry. He is a resident of Gahanna.

Bo Comer has been hired for a Sales position. His focus will be on serving the public sector market in the Central Ohio area. Bo is a graduate of Capital University and has extensive experience in sales in both the telecommunications industry and in office equipment. He resides in Hilliard.

Hoby Young, III has been hired as a Service Technician. He possesses over nine years of experience in retail sales and customer service, as well as a strong background in managing installation and repair work. He currently resides in Columbus.

"We are very pleased and excited to have these four individuals join our company. Their wide-ranging skills and talents will be a valuable asset to our growing business and will provide our clients with superior service," said Darla King, president of King Business Interiors.
